Over 1500 of Christmas Dolls like Hannah Montana, SPA Fantasy Aromatherapy Fountain, Static Cling Window Art Set, Blowpen Infomercial Set, Fireworks Pencil Wamers Pen Jacket Hatraser etc. are among giveaway toys.

Come one, come all!

This program is design to help meet family needs of our local community here in Fort Worth during this holiday season as well as help promote our Book Café and Books Abroad project in rural communities of Africa.

WoD is a 14-year non-profit organization that strives to strengthen rural libraries by shipping supplemental educational materials to schools and libraries while facilitating the building and replication of self-sustaining learning centers throughout Africa that will offer opportunities for lifelong learning and entrepreneurial advancement. WoD spends more than 90% of all receipts on projects and is run 100% from volunteer efforts.

Since 1996, over 500,000 educational materials and supplies have been transported from the United States and Brazil to Africa. These materials are improving reading and study habits in over 100,000 students, ages 6 through 16. In addition, teachers are supplied with the necessary resources for classroom instruction. This particular gesture is like a smile by nature. That is, “It never makes a giver poorer and enriches those who receive it,” says Alhagie Fatty, learning center user in Mandinaba.

However, in order to accomplish this mission Wings of the Dawn (WoD) needs your support. We encourage you to bring your family and friends to the Free Christmas and Learning Toys Program to learn more about ways that you can support our efforts at our Book Café and Books Abroad program. This is an exciting opportunity for you to pay it forward in our community.

Volunteers interested in an openness to committing their time and effort intellectually, imaginatively, physically, vocally and emotionally are invited to join. Interested participant will experience the life-changing potential of supporting our cause.
